THE Sturgeon Leader says grasshoppers are destroying the growing wheat in that section.

It is said that in Daviess county about two Republicans have gone into the Greenback party to one Democrat.

REMEMBER the time of Gen. Cockrell's appointments to speak in this county and be sure to go and hear him. See the list of appointment elsewhere in this paper.

CHRISTOPHER MANN, of Independence, Mo., has just celebrated his 105th birthday. He has a son only eight years old, and is the father of twenty-eight children.

L. D. DAMERON, business manager of the Southwestern Book and Publishing company, has announced to the Missouri Conference his purpose to retire from the management.

WE want to see every Democrat in old Chariton buckle on the armor and go to work. The only way the country will ever get rid of the "gold bugs" is by Democratic votes.

THE Democratic party in this county are united and happy. They have taken off their coats, rolled up their sleeves, and are going to continue working like beavers until after the election.—Sullivan Standard.

HON. G. F. ROTHWELL made such a fine impression on the Sullivan county people that they have determined to have him back among them again on the 22d of this month, at which time there is to be a grand rally of the Democracy at Milan, Mo.

THERE is to be a grand mass meeting, picnic and political speaking at the Sturgeon fair grounds, Thursday, October 17th. All the county candidates in Randolph, Howard, Monroe, Audrain and Boone are specially invited and expected to attend.

THE Democracy of Sullivan county are to have a grand rally at Milan, on Tuesday, October 22d. Senator Cockrell, Hon. G. F. Rothwell, and Hon. A. Mackay are to be present and address the audience on the political issues of the day. Extensive preparation is being made for the occasion.

ARRANGEMENTS are being made for a grand re-union of the "Army of Tennessee" at Indianapolis, October 31st. Generals Sherman, Sheridan, Hancock, Pope, Burnside, Logan, Bull and Jeff. C. Davis are among the "prominent" already spoken of as sure to be there.

If any Greenback Democrat wants to hear a little anecdote which fully illustrates the strain the third party is now making, as well as the result which is likely to follow, he should call on Capt. Wallace and get that little story of the death in Texas. It is decidedly appropos.

THE senatorial contest in this state is waxing hotter every day. It looks just at this time as if the fight was narrowed down to Vest and Glover, of St. Louis. Of course there will be dark horses on hand; but the way the thing looks to a man up a tree, it will either be Glover or Vest. If we are to take our choice between these two, we say, pull down your vest.—New Century.

THE COURIER has been greatly neglected this week, the editor having been engaged as secretary of the fair, and all the "boys" in the office being engaged with their sweethearts.

IN the suit of the Bank of Commerce of New York, against the State National Bank, of Missouri, Judge Dillon, last Saturday decided in favor of the plaintiff, rendering judgment in the sum of $145,000.

HON. J. L. DAVIS appeared before the crowd at the fair grounds Wednesday immediately after Miss Conzins had concluded, but owing to the fact that the crowd was very restless and noisy, he only spoke a few minutes.

THE Democrats of this county, have determined to make the canvass very warm from now until the November election, not that they fear any innovations on the party from the Greenbackers, but they feel as if it was their duty to keep things warm. Democrat clubs are to be organized in every township and the party put in thorough fighting trim.—Huntsville Herald.

HON. G. F. ROTHWELL declares in favor of the following points:
1st. The repeal of the resumption act.
2d. The repeal of the national bank law.
3d. The substitution of greenbacks for the national bank notes.

4th. The payment of the bonds in greenbacks, which were originally contracted to be paid in currency.
ROTHWELL is a sounder man to-day on the greenback question than Broadus, and so the people must decide between a Greenbacker and Pollard, a hard money Radical, of course they will take Rothwell, for Broadus does not stand the ghost of a show for an election, even if he was sound on the greenback question, which he is not, for his financial views are decidedly under a cloud.—Huntsville Herald.

THE Democracy and Greenback men of Iowa have effected a harmonious alliance and consolidated their tickets, much to the consternation of the Republicans. The Greenback party in that state is a political factor with principles and purposes that bear the light of day; with too much intelligence for any Sir Anthony Absolute to lead it by the nose and too much independence to be manipulated in the interests of Radicalism.—St. L. Times.

THE election Tuesday resulted favorably in some respects to the Democrats. We had a gain of three congressmen in Ohio, but lost the state ticket by 10,000 to 15,000 majority. The Democrats won the state ticket by an increased majority, and gained in congressmen in Indiana. West Virginia rolled up a good Democratic majority, but Iowa is still "beastly" Radical. The election demonstrated one thing, however, namely, that the third-party is a force and can never succeed.

Up to this writing, Thursday night, we have had beautiful weather for the fair, and there has been a good attendance each day. The display in the hall is very fine, and there is just "lots" of stock on the ground. The failure to make the balloon ascension Thursday was a sore disappointment to the crowd, but as the wind was so very strong it could not be helped. Prof. Melville said it was impossible to inflate the balloon in such a wind. We shall endeavor to publish a complete list of the awards next week.

PERSONAL RELIEF PARTY.
Col. T. T. Crittenden recognizing the distressing necessity of the National-Greenback-Labor-Absolute-Fiat-Money party, and desiring to assist them in selecting a name that can be uttered without consuming all the health and breath in the body, in the kindness of his heart and the fullness of his ingenuity, has suggested that hereafter they be called The Personal Relief party. He thinks that such a name will truthfully portray their principles and express their aims, and make a platform upon which they all can stand, each man concentrated in self.

THE Brookfield Chronicle speaking of the Democratic meeting at Strawberry Hall, in that city, on the 26th of September, says the following handsome compliment to our candidate for state senator: "Andrew Mackay, of Chariton county, the Democratic candidate for state senate, addressed the meeting in his peculiar happy style—dignified and witty, decorous and humorous and used up his time greatly to the gratification of his hearers and credit to himself. He confined himself to matters of state policy and left national questions to the other speakers. Mr. Mackay most thoroughly satisfied the Democrats here. His election is sure."

NO FURTHER CONTRACTION.
A policy fraught with the most portentous evil, which has brought ruin and bankruptcy in its path, was the contraction of the currency, in order to provide for and facilitate resumption. An act forbidding a further retirement of legal tender notes, and providing that from and after its passage it shall not be lawful for the secretary of the treasury, or any officer under him, to destroy, cancel or retire any more legal tenders, but when redeemed or received by him shall be re-issued and paid out again and kept in circulation, passed the house on April 29, 1873, by the following vote:
Democrats—ayes.....104 Nays.....7
Republicans—ayes.....73 Nays.....28
This bill became a law, and of course if faithfully enforced by the officers of the treasury will prevent further contraction and further disaster and ruin from that source.—Missouri Statesman.

According to previous notice Miss Phoebe Conzins delivered her famous lecture on "Co-operative farming," at the fair grounds Wednesday. In many instances the line was overdrawn, but the lecture was, withal, an able, and contained some most sensible and valuable suggestions, which, if followed out, would not only very much advance society, but greatly improve the health and increase the happiness of all. During the entire time she held the audience spell-bound, as it were, and we believe all felt wiser and better after having heard her.

THE torch-light procession Wednesday night was a success, and marched through the streets, headed by the band, stopping at the court house about 7:30. The circuit court room was soon crowded. Col. C. H. Mansur appeared and addressed the audience in a ringing appeal for Democracy for more than an hour. Hon. J. L. Davis, of Davies county, was then introduced and discussed the financial question in an able and logical manner. Both gentlemen made fine impressions, and their arguments and reasoning will add several to the Democratic majority in this county in November.

GREENBACK MEETING.
On Wednesday the Greenback candidates and the central committee for the party, met at Oldham school house, Musclev Fork township, and after arranging the work for the county canvass gave notice that Noah Dean, and other candidates, would speak at that place at 7 p. m. on that evening. At the appointed time Messrs. Dean, Bradley, McEwing and Bain were all on hand to do battle for their cause. Mr. Noah Dean, the Greenback candidate for Representative, lead off and was followed by all the others in order. The house was tolerably well filled with Democrats who were present to hear what the new men had to say. Nothing new was learned, no new pledges were made, and Mr. Dean left his audience in doubt as to what reforms he would inaugurate if elected.

EDWARD and John Shewalter (brothers) and Abe Creswell, who were arrested at Warrensburg, on Monday last, for the robbery of the Concordia, Lafayette county, bank, some four weeks ago, were taken to the latter place on the day following. Being arraigned there before Justice Thieman, they plead not guilty, and were sent to the Lexington jail in default of bail in $5,000 each, to await a preliminary examination on the 10th inst. A detective who registered at Warrensburg a week before as J. J. McCann, St. Louis, was assisted in the arrest by James Branch, of Lafayette county, who recognized Creswell as the man he had shot at while in Concordia at the time of the robbery. Ed. Shewalter had a bullet hole in the skirt of his coat at the time of his arrest, and had been walking with a cane for some time. It is thought that they have the right parties this time. Creswell is held to be of doubtful reputation. The Shewalters are respectively connected, but make a living some way without much show of working for it.—Times.

REPEAL OF THE RESUMPTION ACT.
In 1876 the Democrats for the first time in sixteen years obtained a majority in the house, the senate and the executive being still Republican. The Democrats at once raised the banner of financial reform, and on Aug. 5, 1876, Mr. Cox, (Dem., N. Y.) reported to the house from the committee on banking and currency, a bill repealing the third section of the resumption act of Jan. 14, 1875—that section being the one that fixed Jan. 1, 1875, as the day of resumption. The vote stood:
Democrats—ayes.....95 Nays.....31
Republicans—ayes.....11 Nays.....55
Not voting.....38
The bill thus passed—ayes 106, nays 86—was permitted to sleep in a Republican senate, and in this way the bill failed to become a law. The Republicans were the authors of the original resumption bill, and they are responsible for its continuance on the statute book as a menace to every interest of the people.—Missouri Statesman.

COUNTY CANVASS.
We do not think there is a shadow of a doubt that our excellent Democratic county ticket, in Chariton county, will be elected at the November election, and on that score the candidates can, and no doubt do, rest easy, but at the same time recognizing the fact that they owe something to the party which has honored them as standard bearers, they have gone to work and mapped out an extensive and protracted county canvass, which will be followed up and watched with unremitting attention and zeal until the day of the election. The Republicans and greenback men will resort to all sorts of machinations to distract, divide and destroy the strength of the Democratic party in this county. These efforts should be met, as they no doubt will be, and exposed by our candidates, the selected leaders of the party in the county. There is no need of alarm on account of the activity of the enemy in this canvass. We are of the opinion it will all result in good to the party. There is seldom ever a surprise made when the enemy is known to be near and ready to strike where a weak place in the line can be found, the near approach of such danger calls for vigilance and timely caution; reconnoitering is then the order of the day. Such we believe to be the condition of the Democratic forces in the canvass, and we predict a glorious victory at the November election. Let the voters turn out at the meetings advertised, and hear the issues of the times discussed fully. Read the list of appointments published in this paper, and be sure to attend the meeting and enroll in the Democratic club of your neighborhood.

THE DEATH OF COL. A. S. HARRIS.

Meeting of the Bar of Chillicothe.
At a meeting of the bar of Livingston county, Mo., at the court-house on Oct. 1, 1878, to take action on the death of Anderson S. Harris, the following proceedings were had:
Charles H. Mansur was called to the chair, and W. P. Munro elected secretary. Whereupon a committee of five, consisting of L. T. Collier, Capt. W. N. Norville, Judge J. J. Clark, D. G. Saunders and G. W. Warder, was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of our loss in the death of our lamented brother, with instructions to report at an adjourned meeting to be held next morning at half-past eight o'clock, and on motion C. H. Mansur was added to the committee.

The bar, pursuant to adjournment, was called to order, whereupon, L. T. Collier, in behalf of said committee, made the following report:

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.
The bar of this city and of the state have just cause to mourn the death of an able and distinguished lawyer, and the community an upright, honorable and highly esteemed citizen.

Anderson S. Harris is no more! At his residence in this city, on Monday evening, September 30, 1878, at 9:30 o'clock, and after an illness of two weeks, he breathed his last. The disease of which he died was an affection of the kidneys, causing a suppression of urine and a consequent sulfusion of uranic poison through his system, and reaching his brain on the fourteenth day, producing spasms and convulsions, death ensued.

The subject of this memorial was born in Manchester, just opposite Richmond, Va., on the 13th of May, 1821, and he was fifty-seven years, four months and seventeen days old at the time of his death.

His father dying when he was a small boy, by the management and economy of his mother, who still lives, he received a good English education in the city of Richmond, Va. Without patrimony, but actuated by a laudable ambition to rise in the world, at the age of 19 he left the scenes of his youth in the Old Dominion and located in a small village in the state of Tennessee. Here he took up a school, and while teaching he employed his leisure moments in the study of such law books as could be had in that new and sparsely-settled district. From Tennessee he moved to Lexington, Mo., and again engaged in teaching school in that city or vicinity, but meanwhile continuing his legal studies under the care and direction of that distinguished jurist, the late Judge John F. Ryland.

In 1846 he settled at Brunswick, Chariton county, Mo., and at once entered upon the practice of his profession. About the year 1850 he changed his residence and located at Carrollton, Mo., and remaining there some three years, he returned to Brunswick with the view of finishing up the large professional business of the law firm of Stringfellow & Abell, who had moved to Atchison, Kansas. In 1854 Col. Harris married Lizzie Musser, of Cynthia, Ky.

During the war Col. Harris was a resident of Chillicothe and held the position of Colonel under Gov. H. R. Gamble, and a short time after peace was restored he went to St. Louis and there spent some two years in the practice of law.

Becoming tired of city life, he again came back to Brunswick, the scene of his early struggles, and about two years since removed to Chillicothe.

Col. Harris was emphatically a self-made man. Blessed with a robust constitution and unusually strong mental powers, he was withal ever a close and laborious student in his profession and consequently achieved, as he deserved, eminent distinction as a lawyer. Besides he was a man of sterling integrity and high-toned honor, a devoted husband, a faithful friend, and a citizen whose loss will long be felt in this part of the state, where he spent the largest part of his life.

Moved by sorrow, and desiring to pay all proper respect to the memory of our departed friend and brother, your committee submit the following resolutions:

1st. That in the death of Col. Anderson S. Harris, we deeply feel the loss of an able and distinguished associate, whose frank disposition, manly bearing and unswerving devotion to the profession of his choice make up an example well worthy our imitation.

2d. That while deeply moved by sentiment of sorrow and respect, we tender to his stricken wife, venerable mother and other mourning relatives, the warmest expressions of our heartfelt sympathy in this, the hour of their sore bereavement.

3d. That a copy of this report be delivered to Mrs. Harris, the wife and widow of our deceased brother.

4th. That in further token of our respect this Bar attend the funeral of the body.

5th. That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be presented to the Circuit court of this county with a request that the same be spread upon its recorder.

On motion the meeting adjourned to meet at the court-house at 10 o'clock a. m., on Nov. 11, 1878, for memorial purposes.
C. H. MANSUR,
W. P. MUNRO, Sec'y.

THE New Orleans Picayune says:
"The relief which comes to this stricken section from all parts of the country reaches farther than is commonly supposed, and farther perhaps, than its authors intend. It relieves the southern heart of its bitterness and the memory of its wrongs. In the name of that philanthropy which has swept over all geographical and party lines, we declare that the war is over, at last and forever."
